He exhibited what he claimed to port of this claim and cited the case Laporte Man Didn't Have Marine Inspectors Whitney and Kell Urrutia's alleged declarations were of Jack Johnson to bear out his contention that he cannot be sent back to the United States by the Canadian authorities as long as he is simply passing through the country and intends to go beyond its borders.

Two men were arrested with Thaw but liberated later at Coaticook. They are believed to be confederates who aided Thaw in his escape. The two men refused to give their names or say anything about themselves. They followed Thaw here from Coaticook and remained in town over night. Denounces Hearing.

W. L. Shurtleff, the Coaticook lawyer retained by Thaw, denounced the hearing before Justice Dupuis as unfair and said he would apply Wednesday for a writ of habeas corpus for Thaw prior to the hearing before the extradition commissioner. Should the writ be refused, Mr. Shurtleff said he would seek an appeal.

There is every indication that Thaw intends to wage a bitter fight against extradition, deportation or both. From his cell to the county jail Tuesday night he sent to the newspapermen a statement under this caption, written in capitals: "No one has contended that for two years nearly that Thaw has been in the tembs he has been insane. There is no evidence of delusion in the slightest degree on his part. Is it anything crazy to take a pistol to defend yourself against a man who calls you a ---, and threatens to kill you before morning?" The statement itself was a printed synopsis of Dist. Atty. Jerome's speech-or purported to be such-to the jury at Thaw's second trial.

Removed to Hospital. After Thaw had spent some hours in his cell and grumbled about his poor quarters he was removed to the hospital, where the accommodations are better. At his lawyer's suggestion he consented to see reporters. "Where did you intend to go after you left Matteawan?" he was asked. 'I may have been going home," he replied quickly and finally. No amount of questioning could induce him to modify this declaration. Courteously but firmly he declined to answer all questions even remotely bearing on
